I tried, but I still ended up with subjects I couldn't handle.

You're not alone; my uncle is also struggling with the course project.

Yes, I know it's a common problem, but we don't know how to overcome it.

I think I should talk to Mr. Atharva; he's in the IITM POD team. Maybe he can provide a solution.

Yes, please go and talk to him about this significant issue.

I will go tomorrow.

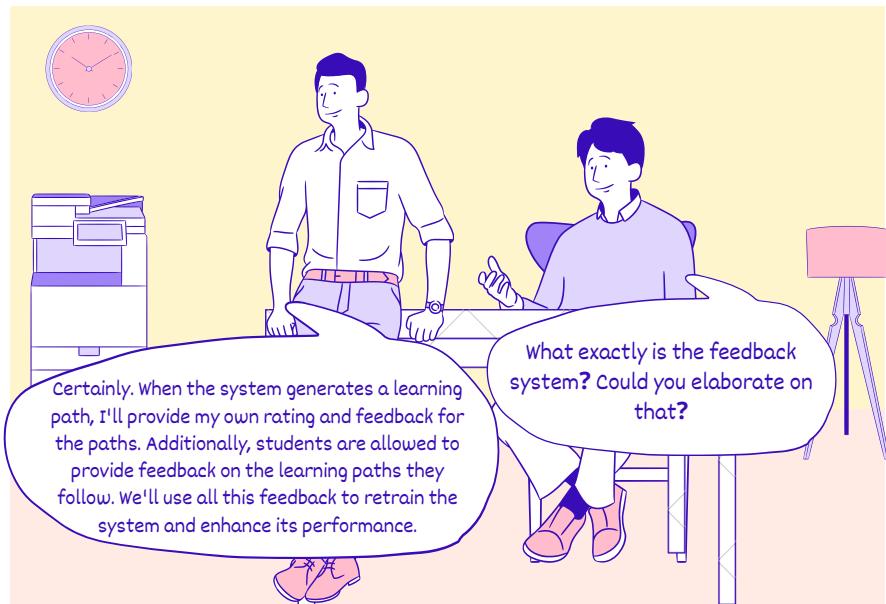

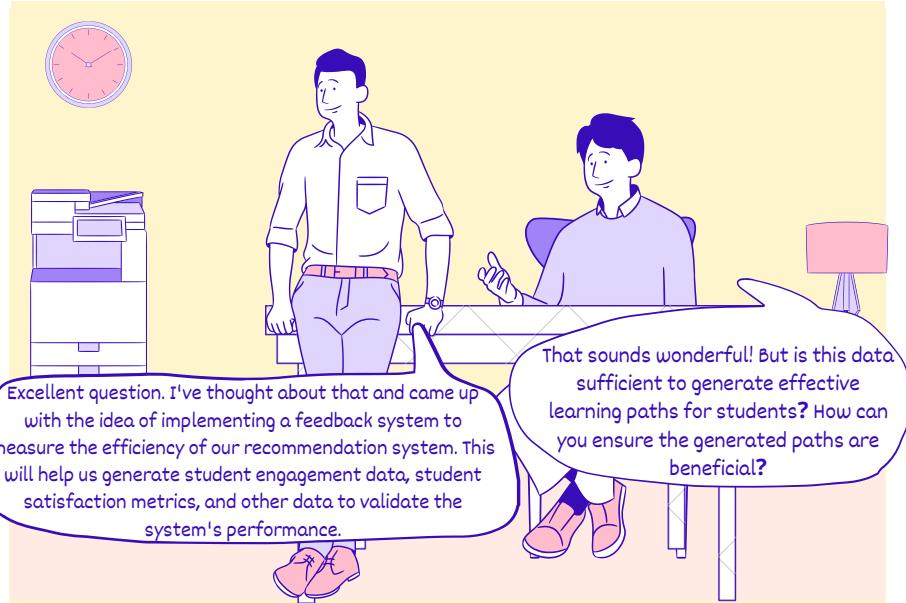

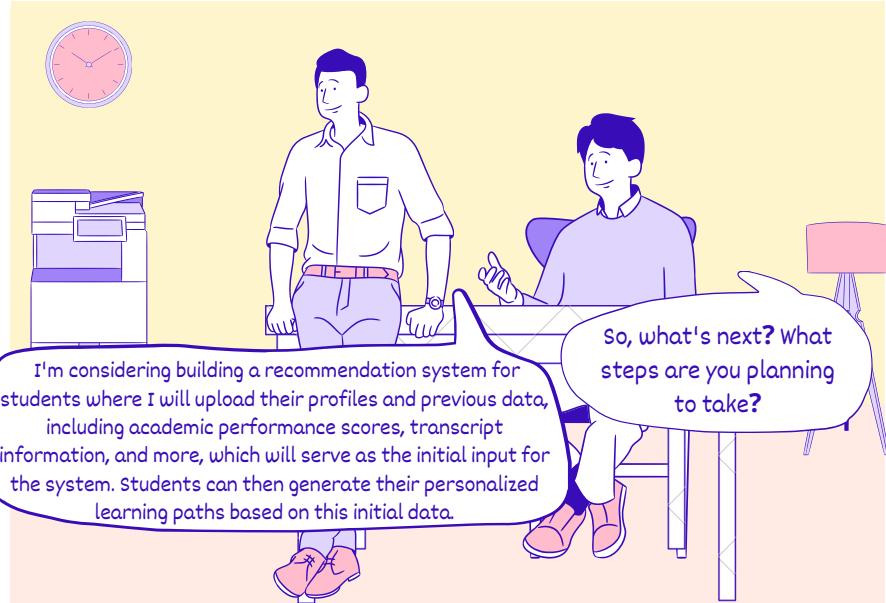

Next Day after IITM POD meeting

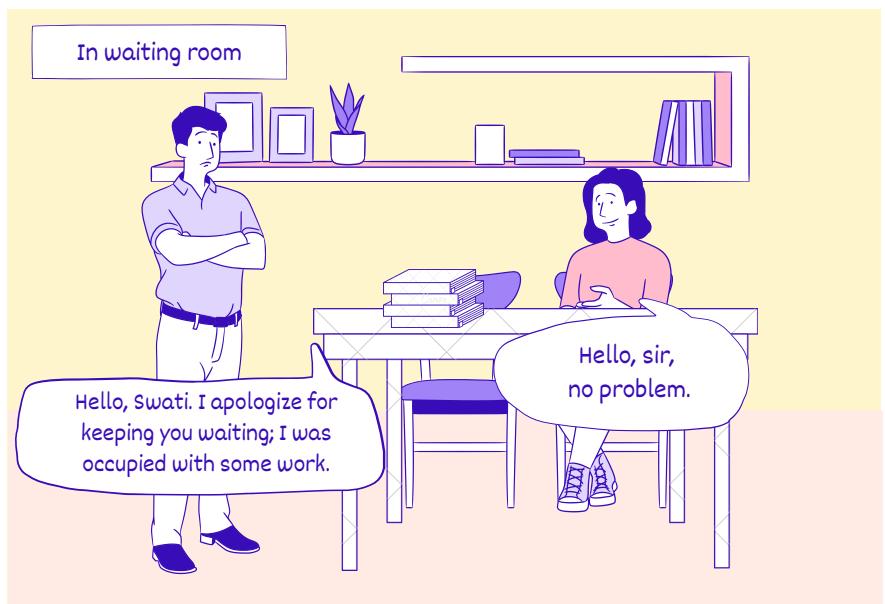

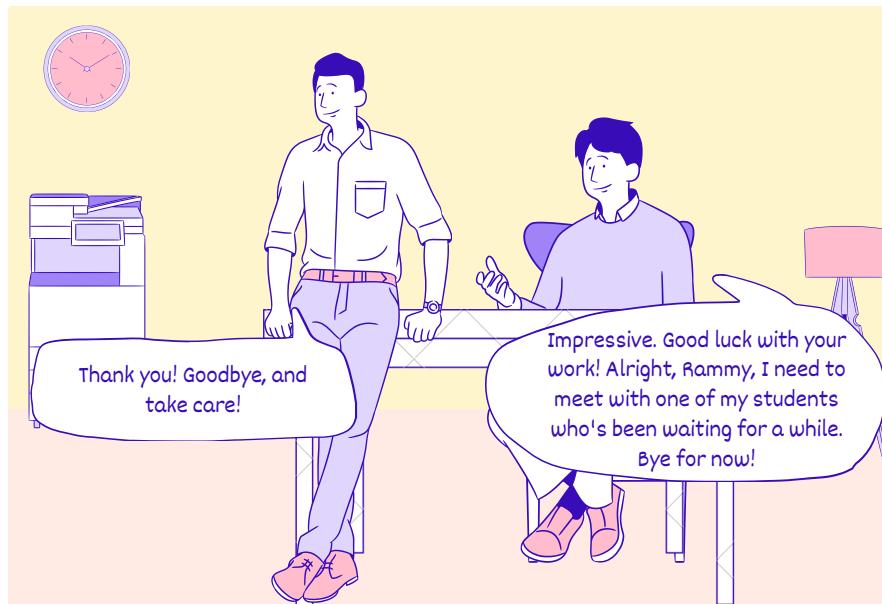

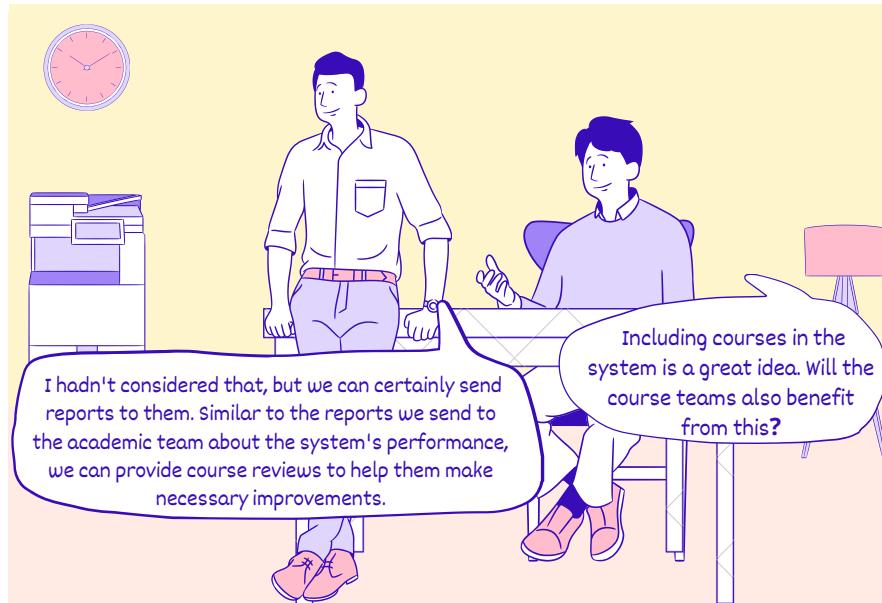

Thank you! I've been quite concerned about student performance for a while. It wasn't looking great, so I did some in-depth analysis that led to this idea.

Congratulations, Rammy, on becoming the project head of this new recommendation system! Your idea for building this system was fabulous, and you've done a great job. Well done.
